VINCE RYAN

Dear AFP READERSHIP COUNCIL Member:

July and August are traditionally tough months in the publishing business. And we have found that here again this year at American Free Press. Fact is, we're a bit strapped for cash.

But we do have plenty of affordable books we are willing to let go at bargain basement prices.

These are some of our newest and most popular sellers - ones we do have a good stock of. These include two of Michael Collins Piper's bestsellers plus Jim Tucker's fascinating and enjoyable new Bilderberg Diary. You'll also find FDR: The Other Side of the Coin by Congressman Hamilton Fish.

But we also have two NEW publications for you.

The first is a 100-page magazine-style publication called Debunking 9-11. It is an historic compilation of some of the very best information we could round up on the Sept. 11 tragedies - a world tour, if you will - that really exposes the government's cover-up of what really happened that fateful day. And there's also all new information inside from Ellen Mariani, whose husband was killed on 9-11 and from William Rodriguez, the Trade Center's "last man out." Also you'll find new commentaries from Michael Collins Piper, Christopher Bollyn, Greg Syzmanski and Eric Hufschmid, author of Painful Questions. There's lot of great new photos too.

And we're also offering The Passion Play at Oberammergau, a beautiful reprint of a 1910 classic not seen in print for more than 95 years. It includes period photos plus an all-new 11-page introduction by Michael Collins Piper about the ADL's efforts to "edit" the Passion Play (performed since 1634), much as they pressured Mel Gibson to sanitize his authentic The Passion of the Christ. It's a gorgeous volume every sincere Christian will want on their bookshelf.

Please turn the page to see more about this exclusive offer being made only to our READERSHIP COUNCIL members.

1 THE NEW JERUSALEM: Zionist Power in America. Unlike anything ever published in the modern day, this explosive study combines in 184 pages, for the first time ever between two covers, all of the amazing facts and figures (taken from an astounding array of pro-Zionist sources) which document the massive accumulation of wealth and power by those who have used that influence to direct the course of U.S. foreign and domestic policy today. While there are many historical books on “the Israeli lobby” and about Zionist intrigues, etc, this is the only book that brings things “up to date” and constitutes a bold and thorough inquiry. A “must read” for Americans honest enough to face facts about the real sources of high-level power in the United States today. Retail price $19.95.

2 JUST RELEASED! JIM TUCKER'S BILDERBERG DIARY. In 1983 Jim Tucker began personally covering Bilderberg—and has done so for more than 22 years. And believe us, Tucker had a lot of great adventures covering those meetings. Over the course of those years, he also accumulated reams of information from multiple sources, which is included in Bilderberg Diary. But Bilderberg Diary is more than just a collection of dry facts, dates and names. It's Jim's personal recollections from each meeting attended. That includes how he penetrated the meetings—from posing as Henry Kissinger at a meeting in Helsinki, Finland in 1994 to bribing barmaids and hotel staff to filch documents from participants' rooms—and more. Tucker even had his press credentials suspended one year by Sen. Charles Mathias of Maryland for swiping the senator's Bilderberg file folder. But even this high-level pressure didn't stop him from using every means necessary to get inside the secret meetings, sidestepping gun-toting security and hotel cops who had Tucker's picture well in advance of his arrival. Softcover, 272 pages. Retail: $25.

3 NEW! THE PASSION PLAY AT OBERAMMERGAU. Made available to AFP exclusively through our friends at the NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR CHRISTIAN SOLIDARITY, this book is a one-of-a-kind not seen in print for more than 95 years. Reformatted and with an 11-page introduction by AFP's own Michael Collins Piper, The Passion Play at Oberammergau is the remarkable and historic presentation put on every 10 years since 1634 by the people of a small pastoral village in Bavaria. Powerful anti-Christian forces demanded that this Passion Play be “edited” to delete certain scenes taken directly from the Bible that were perceived to be “offensive.” The humble residents of Oberammergau resisted until the year 2000 when they succumbed and edited the New Testament accounts of the Passion. But here's The Passion Play UNEXPURGATED—the real thing as it was performed in 1910 and may never be performed again. This book is like reading a novel—a descriptive and inspiring work that is committed to the accurate and forthright rendering of the story of the Passion of Jesus. You will be thrilled to have this genuine work as part of your personal library, a volume you'll treasure and want to pass on to your kids and grandkids. Softcover, 202 pages. Retail price: $25.

4 NEW! DEBUNKING 9-11. AFP has had so much success selling, marketing and distributing its newspaper-style report 50 Unanswered Questions About 9-11, we've turned it into a expanded and updated magazine style bound booklet—adding 50 more unanswered questions and 25 more articles. But even more exciting, Ellen Mariani, whose husband was killed in the crash at the Trade Center in 2001 and William Rodriguez, “the last man out” of the Twin Towers before they collapsed, have submitted their own brand new commentaries to the publication. But that's not all, we also have top AFP reporters Christopher Bollyn, Michael Collins Piper and Greg Syzmanski summing up their own groundbreaking work on 9-11, telling us where their research has led them. There's also an article from Eric Hufschmid, author of Painful Questions, the report that spurred millionaire Jimmy Walter to run full page ads in dozens of newspapers around the country and hold a touring 9-11 symposium in six European countries this summer. PLUS Col. Donn de Grand Pré! Expanded to 100 pages with lots of new photographic artwork and articles, this bound report will fit nicely on your bookshelf for posterity, to show your friends and family and to introduce the type of information found in AFP to others. Exclusive report never offered before. 100 pages. Retail price $19.95.

5 FDR: THE OTHER SIDE OF THE COIN—How We Were Tricked Into World War II. By Congressman Hamilton Fish. FDR: The Other Side of the Coin deals with FDR's clandestine diplomatic negotiations in the dangerous months before American intervention in World War II: in the Danzig Crisis, with which Mr. Fish was deeply involved; the war ultimatum to Japan, kept secret even from Congress; and the unpublicized communications with Ambassador Bullitt and British leaders. Fish felt that had FDR listened to public opinion, overwhelmingly against American intervention in every poll, hundreds of thousands of American boys would have lived. He documents how FDR refused every prewar peace concession the Japanese offered, and later refused peace initiatives from the head of the German Secret Service—at a staggering cost in lives. In his analysis of the geopolitical effects of the Yalta agreements, Mr. Fish traces the causes and roots of the Korean and Vietnamese wars to the territorial concessions given the communists at Yalta. The reader will also note disturbing parallels between the political steps which led to our involvement in World War II and those that preceded the Vietnamese and Iraqi debacles. Above all, this provocative book is a plea for a return to the constitutional government envisioned by our Founding Fathers, with Congress having the sole right and power to declare war. Retail price $25.

6 FINAL JUDGMENT: The Missing Link in the JFK Assassination Conspiracy.

This massive 768-page volume is back from the printer in the second printing of its amazing Sixth Edition, containing explosive new material. More than 45,000 copies of the previous editions of this book are in circulation here and around the world, documenting—just as Israeli nuclear whistle-blower Mordechai Vanunu has said—that JFK's obstinate efforts to prevent Israel from building nuclear weapons of mass destruction played a critical role in the conspiracy behind JFK's assassination. On the strength of this amazing book, Piper has been invited all over the world to discuss his findings—everywhere from the Arab world to Moscow to Malaysia and Japan. Find out what the rest of the world knows about JFK's assassination and what the Controlled Media wants to keep under wraps. This is definitively the last word on the subject, endorsed by former high-ranking Pentagon and State Department officials and endless numbers of independent researchers who aren't afraid to utter the dread word . . . Mossad. Softcover, 768 pages. Retail price $25.
